

EARLY CHILDHOOD PROGRAMS

Programs designed to encourage young children to enjoy nature & creativity.

Nature's Little Artists

Explore the natural world of art with your child. Each week we will discover a different nature theme, while using a variety of art mediums to craft masterpieces! We will even experience the great outdoors during class! Children do not have to be potty-trained, an adult must stay with the child. Dress for the weather for our short outdoor excursions. Pre-registration required.

Location: Heritage Park (Nature Center)

Instructor: Dianne Long

"We know that contact with nature is a source of wonder and inspiration for children, and essential to their healthy development and sense of spirituality."

- Marilyn Price-Mitchell, PhD

Young Explorers

Allow your Young Explorer to experience the natural world! Children explore a different theme each week as they discover and investigate along the trails. Since this is a drop-off program, please send snack and water with your child and dress them for the weather. We will head outdoors rain or shine! Pre-registration required. Children must be potty-trained. Please choose between the AM and PM session.

Little Trekkers

Experience the magic of the natural world with your Little Trekker! Children and adults will discover a new nature theme each week with storytime, outdoor exploration and nature-inspired art projects! Please dress for the weather and exploring the trails, as much of this class takes place outdoors! Pre-registration required. An adult must stay with the child. Limited to 15 children per class.

Little DaVincis

Young children, ages 3-5 years old, are encouraged to explore their creativity through this hands-on child and parent class. Each session will explore a new theme through a variety of media including drawing, painting, and more. Participation in early art classes helps little ones develop fine motor skills, understand abstract concepts, and increase socialization - all while having fun! Dress for a mess.
