Chapter 20 - SOLICITORS AND PEDDLERS

Sec. 20-1. - Purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to protect citizens and community members from unwanted harassment from peddlers and solicitors, and from peddlers and solicitors having criminal backgrounds who may pose a threat to persons or property, while also protecting the constitutional rights of peddlers and solicitors. Also, with respect to certain solicitors' constitutional right to free speech, this chapter is narrowly tailored to protect the health, safety and welfare of the citizens while not unduly burdening the right of such solicitors. With respect to all of the foregoing, the Farmington Hills Police Department's Crime Prevention Advisory Committee adopted a resolution on April 7, 2010, identifying public safety concerns regarding unlicensed peddlers and solicitors and the need to enforce and control peddling and soliciting. Furthermore, a study conducted by the neighboring City of Farmington in 2008 and 2009 shows that the Farmington Public Safety Department issued seventy-five (75) tickets to unlicensed solicitors during that two-year period, and twenty-four (24) of those tickets were issued to persons who were arrested on outstanding warrants. Accordingly, it was found that roughly one-third (1/3) of all unlicensed and unregistered peddlers and solicitors have outstanding criminal warrants in the immediate vicinity of the City of Farmington Hills. As such it is the intent and purpose of this chapter to establish a system of licensing and registering for the different types of peddlers and solicitors defined herein, and to establish certain regulations concerning the conduct of peddling and soliciting in the City of Farmington Hills, in order to prevent fraud, crime, undue and unwanted annoyance and harassment and to protect the peace, privacy, safety, health and welfare of the residents, businesses and persons in the city, while also respecting the constitutional rights of those involved in these activities.

(Ord. No. C-5-2010, § 1.7-19-10)

Sec. 20-2. - Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Charitable, religious or political organization means a not-for-profit charitable, religious, political, benevolent, educational, philanthropic, humane, patriotic, or civic organization of persons, registered and in good standing under Section 501(c) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code, that solicit or obtain contributions solicited from the public for charitable, religious or political purposes.

Parent organization means: (1) the person or organization that a peddler is employed by or represents in the course of peddling, the principal manufacturer and distributor of goods being peddled, or the principal provider of services being peddled; or (2) a charitable, religious or political organization that a solicitor is employed by or represents in the course of soliciting in the city, or such an organization that registers and sends multiple solicitors for purposes of canvassing areas of the city on its behalf.
Peddle and peddling mean: (1) carrying, conveying or transporting goods, wares, merchandise, meats, fish, vegetables, fruits, ice cream and other frozen dessert products, or garden truck farm products or provisions, and offering and exposing any such items for sale or making sales and delivering such items to one (1) or more purchasers; and/or (2) taking or attempting to take orders for the sale of goods, wares, merchandise, books or magazines, articles or personal property of any nature whatsoever for future delivery, or for services to be furnished or performed in the future, whether or not the person engaged in such activity has, carries or exposes for sale a sample of the subject of such sale or whether he is collecting advance payments on such sales or not.

Peddler means any person who, traveling by foot, wagon, automotive vehicle or other conveyance from place to place, from house to house, or from street to street, engages in the act of peddling. Any person who offers to take orders or tentative orders and, as a separate transaction, confirms the order or makes deliveries to purchasers as part of an itinerant merchant scheme or design to evade the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed a peddler. The term "peddler" shall include the terms "commercial solicitor," "itinerant merchant," "transient merchant," "hawker," "huckster" and "canvasser." The term "peddler" shall neither include a person who conducts such activities at a social gathering within a home at the invitation of the occupant of the home, nor solicitors as defined in this section.

Person means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association or joint stock association, nonprofit corporation, church, religious sect, religious denomination, society, organization or league, political party or organization, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, agent or other similar representative thereof.

Solicit and soliciting means the request, directly or indirectly, for money, credit, financial assistance, membership, property, goods and/or services in exchange for a contribution, services, goods, or other thing of value on the plea or representation that such money, credit, property, financial assistance, contribution, services, or other thing of value will be used by a charitable, religious or political organization. The said words shall also mean and include the sale or offer to sell any article, tag, ticket, emblem, publication, advertisement, subscription, membership or other thing, whether of value or not, on the plea or representation that such money, credit, property, financial assistance, or other thing of value, or any part thereof, whether received by the solicitor or purchased by the buyer, will be used by a charitable, religious or political organization. Soliciting also includes street and curb soliciting, as defined in this section.

Solicitor means any person who, traveling by foot, wagon, automotive vehicle or other conveyance from place to place, from house to house, or from street to street, engages in the act of soliciting on behalf of a charitable, religious or political organization, or who, on foot, engages in street and curb soliciting on behalf of a charitable, religious or political organization.

Street and curb soliciting means soliciting on any street, road, highway, lane, sidewalk, curb, road edge, alley and/or driveway in a manner that requires the solicitor, when engaged in the transaction, to stand within the limits of streets, roads, highways, lanes, sidewalks, curbs, road edges, alleys and/or driveways within the city.
