

Mayors' Youth Council

If you are a high school student interested in representing your community on the Mayors' Youth Council, please complete the following application and return it to the address listed below. As a representative on the Mayors' Youth Council you will have the opportunity to serve on various boards and commissions, to listen to the concerns of your peers, assist with the development of youth programs, work to develop innovative solutions and meet with community leaders. If you are interested in becoming a member, have any questions or would like information on meeting dates, contact April Heier at 248-473-1803 or Todd Lipa at 248-473-1841.
