

MEETING MINUTES
CITY OF FARMINGTON HILLS
COMMUNITY HEALTH COMMISSION
JANUARY 16, 2019 - 6:30PM
FARMINGTON HILLS CITY HALL – VIEWPOINT ROOM

CALLED TO ORDER BY: Andrea Anderson at 6:32pm

MEMBERS PRESENT: Joshua Erdei, Renee Murphy, Ed Nieshoff, Andrea Anderson, Eunice Jeffries, Cheryl Patel, Julia Mantey

MEMBERS ABSENT: None

OTHERS PRESENT: Teresa Jergovich, Staff Liaison, Samantha Steckloff, City Council Liaison and Brad Leon

VULNERABLE CITIZENS PROGRAM:

- Asst. Police Chief, Jeff King presented a new program where citizens can report to the Farmington Hills police information related to vulnerable citizens in our community, in an effort to assist responders in emergency situations.
- The system “Premise”, can house information related to disabilities, dementia, autism, PPOs, etc., providing responders additional information beyond what might be available in the CAD system or articulated by the reporter.
- Citizens interested in making a report should call the Farmington Hills police non-emergency line.
- Asst. Chief King asked the committee to look for opportunities to share this information with our citizens through our interactions with the community as a part of our role with the Health Commission.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES:

MOTION by Joshua Erdei, support by Julia Mantey to approve the November 28, 2018 Community Health Commission meeting minutes as presented.
Motion carried unanimously.

APPROVAL OF AGENDA:

MOTION by Joshua Erdei, support by Julia Mantey, to approve the meeting agenda as published.
Motion carried unanimously.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

- Brad Leon, introduced himself to the Commission and shared that he has recently submitted his interest to join the Commission as a Farmington resident.

MEMBER COMMENTS /ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Samantha Steckloff shared details of the recently passed vaping ordinance in Farmington Hills
- Samantha Steckloff shared information related to a new program raising awareness and combating human trafficking in Farmington Hills.
- Samantha Steckloff shared an update on the City’s review of the recently passed marijuana law and upcoming study sessions as the City continues its review in advance of an opt in/ opt out decision.

- Teresa Jergovich reminded commission members that C.A.R.E.S. of Farmington Hills will host an evening session on human trafficking Friday, January 18, 2019 at 6:30 p.m.
- Joshua Erdei proposed that the Commission consider inviting Beaumont Healthy Communities, ECHO and any other known models for operating Health Communities into the February 2019 meeting as the Commission considers adopting an existing program framework, and/or developing its own.
- Eunice Jeffries announced that Beaumont is conducting focus groups (by community health teams) to identify the next three focus areas (next three years) for its Healthy Communities initiative.
- Eunice Jeffries announced an Open House at Beaumont Farmington Hills on Saturday, March 2, 2019 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. showcasing some of the newly renovated facilities.

NEXT MEETING DATE:

- February 20, 2018 at 6:30pm

ADJOURNMENT:

- The meeting adjourned at 7:50pm

Minutes drafted by: Joshua Erdei