3	Youth Division Update	closed down on Thursday and Friday. The Summer Camp Program begins on June 22. The average daily attendance is up to 350. There have been 150,000 hours spent in the Centers. Attendance is steady in spite of the drop in school population. It was a successful for programs including the Crescendo with a focus on music and the Boys to Men program with Lew Brookins. Lew will have a workshop for Fathers and Sons at Heritage Park from 10:00 am. to 3:00 pm. On 6/20. The Tutoring Program went well and the Special Needs Program is temporarily in abeyance for lack of funding. The Garden Program at the Ice Arena is funded and supported. Last year, students donated the proceeds of the sale of the vegetables to a teen in need. Todd has requested that the Center Graduates give back and help. Willing Community Agencies and Therapists have also been helpful with the Students.
4	AGENDA ITEM: Issues Committee Update	ED, LAURA and JOAN: The next meeting to plan the College Financing Seminar is scheduled for Monday, July 20. The College Night is scheduled for Wednesday, September 28 from 7 pm. to 9 pm. In the Shannon Room at the Costick Center. An outline prepared by Daisy Cordero was emailed to the Commission Members. Daisy Cordero is coordinating our program this year and will do an actual demonstration of an FAFSA application for the parents. Dr. Mahmood suggested that we have a program geared for future opportunities for 4 year college graduates or pre-college 4 year graduates. Dave Boyer, the Assistant Farmington

-		Hills City Manager gave accolades for the Technical and Vocational Seminar as well other sources.

	youngsters from Woodcreek Elementary for their exemplary behavior in the reading program. Laura distributed the June Edition of the Library activities.
	6. Commission on Aging: Josephine Hobson: The Commission on Aging is seeking a grant to study whether or not the current programming is meeting the needs of area seniors.
	7. Call to Action: Becky Dworkin: She Announced that the "21 to Buy and Supply" pamphlets were ready for distribution.
	8. Oakland County Commission: Bill Dwyer: 3,000 Gun Locks were distributed for Gun Safety Day. They stressed that the safest storage of weapons is in a gun vault or safe. Brooks Patterson introduced a plan to increase the millage on higher priced homes which would be an increase of $12.00 annually. It would produce $75 million for road repair. Dwyer voted yes and the rest of the Republicans voted no. $3,000,000 was allocated to Farmington/Farmington Hills to augment their road millage funds. 80,000 new jobs are in the County since 2008 and the County has retained its AAA Bond Rating. Foreclosures have decreased and property values have increased. The County has a surplus of funds. The County has a continuing program on Gun Violence with participation of Nebus and Demers. In order to improve our 911 system, a plan was introduced to surcharge a landline 12 cents in order to upgrade the County radio system which will include the Next Generation 911 Project. Dwyer voted yes and the surcharge was passed and approved by the majority of the Commissioners.
	9. Junior Jaycees: Jaymi Dormaier: They are trying to reactivate the Jr. Jaycees. The first project is rehabing the playscape in Shiawassee Park.
