Application Instructions:

The Zoning Board of Appeals, by State Statute, can grant a variance only if reasons set forth in Section 34-7.14.6 are met which includes demonstrating “practical difficulty” for a non-use variance or “unnecessary hardship” for a use variance.

Please Note: No application will be accepted without the petition form completed and with all pertinent information included, plans attached, and the fee paid.

The following must be submitted along with the application, or the Zoning Division will not accept your application:

- A site plan, showing all existing structures. If a new structure is proposed, show its setback to the property line and distance from the principal structure.
- A drawing of the site layout at least 8 ½ x 11” in size, drawn to scale. If the site layout is based on a 24” x 36” blueprint, then one (1) full-size copy and fifteen (15) 8 ½” x 11” copies should be provided (no staples please). The full-sized copy should be folded to fit into a legal-size jacket.
- A drawing of the proposed structure with dimensions noted.
- If the appeal involves setback variances, setbacks of all adjoining properties and buildings must be noted on the plan, including a property boundary/stake survey showing the requested variance area. If the appeal involves wall signs, elevations of the building must be submitted with the sizes and locations of existing wall signs. For all sign applications, all existing freestanding signs must be noted.
- Photographs of the property (optional). Photographs of the property and adjacent buildings and abutting properties are helpful to the Board and should be submitted whenever possible. If the photographs are in color, provide 15 copies (no staples please).
- All plans submitted for the file or presented at the meeting must remain part of the permanent ZBA file.

Designated fees:

Residential: $475.00 +$75.00 for each additional variance.

Commercial: $565.00 + $75.00 for each additional variance.

Interpretation: $600.00 + $50.00 for each additional request.

Special Meeting: $960.00

State law requires that mailings go out to all owners of property plus all occupants within 300' of the subject property.

Application Deadline:

An application for an appeal to the Board of an administrative order, requirement, decision, interpretation, or determination made by an administrative official or body charged with enforcement of the City's Zoning Ordinance, as permitted under the City Zoning Ordinance and/or the Michigan Zoning Enabling Act, shall be filed with the Zoning Division Supervisor within whichever of the following deadlines comes first:

- A. Thirty (30) days after the date the administrative official or body issues its administrative order, requirement, decision, interpretation, or determination in writing signed by the official or chairperson of the body rendering the administrative order, requirement, decision, or determination being appealed.
- B. If issued by an administrative body, twenty-one (21) days after the body approves the minutes of its decision.

Site Visit:

The members comprising the Board of Appeals visit the site under consideration prior to the hearing. This is an informal visit usually made the Sunday morning before the hearing date. No Testimony is taken on site visits. Interested members of the public may also attend. It is not necessary for you to be present unless you have been advised otherwise.

- Applicants for a special exception/variance for freestanding signs must have the sign location staked on the property for the week preceding the ZBA meeting.
- Applicants for permission/or a setback variance for a structure, building, or addition must stake or chalk the location of the perimeter of the building or the site of the structure on the property for the week preceding the ZBA meeting.
- FAILURE TO APPEAR AT THE MEETING EITHER IN-PERSON, OR BY REPRESENTATIVE, WILL BE SUFFICIENT CAUSE FOR THE BOARD TO DENY THE REQUEST OR DISMISS THE CASE.
