Shop Local Art at the Michigan Makers Market at The Hawk in Farmington Hills Oct. 19

The indoor juried art fair will feature over 50 Michigan artisans selling handmade goods

WHAT: The Michigan Makers Market, an indoor juried art fair featuring high-quality art from more than 50 local artists, returns to The Hawk in Farmington Hills on Saturday, Oct. 19. With a focus on Michigan made goods, the Market will include artists across various disciplines, including painting, sculpture, jewelry and other wearable art, fiber art, ceramics, printmaking, and more.

This year's Market will have an Oktober Fest feel, featuring live music on The Hawk patio and beer, wine, and hot pretzels available to enjoy while shopping.

Admission to the Michigan Makers Market is free and open to the public, including free parking.

WHO: Community members are invited to the Michigan Makers Market to browse Michigan made art, perfect for gifts for any occasion.

The art fair is presented by the City of Farmington Hills Special Services Department and produced by the same team that organizes ART on the GRAND each June.

To explore the Michigan Makers Market artists, visit ART on the GRAND on Facebook or Instagram.

WHEN: Saturday, Oct. 19 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

WHERE: The Hawk, 29995 W. Twelve Mile Road, Farmington Hills, MI 48334
