Farmington Hills City Hall Open Only for Election-Related Business on Monday, Nov. 4 and Tuesday, Nov. 5

City Hall resumes normal business operations following the election on Wednesday, Nov. 6

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich. (Sept. 24, 2024) – In anticipation of a robust voter turnout for the November General Election, the Farmington Hills City Hall and the City Clerk’s Office will be open to the public only for election-related business on Monday, Nov. 4 and Tuesday, Nov. 5, 2024. City Hall will be closed for all other business on those dates. The Farmington Hills City Clerk’s Office is located inside City Hall at 31555 W. Eleven Mile Road. City Hall will return to normal business operations on Wednesday, Nov. 6.

“We’re anticipating a larger voter turnout for the November General Election and we’re ready to help Farmington Hills voters have their voices be heard,” said Farmington Hills City Clerk Carly Lindahl. “Up until and through Election Day, many voters will visit City Hall to register to vote, request an absent voter ballot or return an absent voter ballot. The increased traffic is expected to create high demand for City staff and resources.”

Important election-related reminders for these dates

- Monday, Nov. 4 at 4 p.m.: Deadline for registered voters to request an absent voter ballot in person at the City Clerk’s Office.
- Tuesday, Nov. 5 until 8 p.m.: Individuals registering to vote in person at the City Clerk’s Office may obtain and vote an absent voter ballot with proof of residency or vote in person at their assigned polling location.
