THE HISTORY

The Longacre House was originally a small six-room Victorian House built in 1869 by Palmer Sherman. In 1918, it was redesigned and expanded into a 20-room Georgian country house, including four porches, seven baths, and a greenhouse. The final remodeling was completed in 1930, with the addition of the library.

Today, our doors are open to weddings, theme parties, receptions, business meetings, banquets, and baby showers. The exquisite Longacre House can accommodate 130 guests during the warmer months and 106 guests in the coldest, winter months. The beautifully landscaped grounds are a beautiful space for guests during warmer weather. The gazebo makes a wonderful backdrop for a wedding ceremony.
