Nominating Petitions for November 2025 City General Election Available Now at Farmington Hills City Hall

The offices of mayor and City Council member will be on the ballot in November

FARMINGTON HILLS, Mich. (Jan. 8, 2024) – The Farmington Hills City Clerk’s Office is encouraging potential candidates for mayor or City Council to begin circulating nominating petitions for the Nov. 4, 2025, City General Election. Potential candidates may file to run for mayor, a two-year term, or one of three City Council member positions, each a four-year term.

Nominating petitions can be picked up during regular business hours at the Farmington Hills City Clerk’s Office, located inside City Hall at 31555 West Eleven Mile Road. The Farmington Hills City Clerk’s Office is open Monday-Friday 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

“Residents who are passionate about shaping the future of Farmington Hills are encouraged to consider running for office,” said Farmington Hills City Clerk Carly Lindahl. “Circulating nominating petitions to gather the required number of signatures is the first step in the process, and the Clerk’s Office is here to answer any questions potential candidates may have.”

Candidates will be provided additional information upon pickup of nominating petitions. For more information, contact the Farmington Hills City Clerk’s Office at 248-871-2410.
